"I don't know what the future is holding in store . . .

But there's a spirit that guides me and a light that shines for me."

— John Denver

"Everything, in this world,
belongs to tomorrow
and tomorrow belongs to you.

Every dream that you dream can come true tomorrow,
so we spend today
hanging on to a dream,
cause tomorrow's a brand new day.

Everything, in this world,
belongs to tomorrow
and tomorrow belongs to you.

Everything around you is changing, new and unfamiliar faces.
Take the time to change the places of each and every day.
Everyday's a whole new mountain and you can climb it if you want to, giving all you can for what you believe in.

You and I,
we belong to that very same tomorrow We belong to tomorrow,
so we spend today
hanging on to a dream,
cause tomorrow's a brand new day.

Everything, in this world,
belongs to tomorrow
and tomorrow belongs to you."
— Steve Hoffman

So — find yourself your goals and ideals and with them you must make your choice and fulfill your dreams.
And your dreams will make tomorrow, and your love will make us live on and share peace with each other Always.

— Judy Borcz

The 1975 Cayugan Staff wishes to dedicate the yearbook to a faculty member who has continually demonstrated an interest in students, Mr. Richard McCleary.

Mr. McCleary was instrumental in the formation of S.T.A.R., an organization which at one time strongly united many students for the good of the school and the community. He has headed Art Club, as its advisor, for several years. Last year, Mr. McCleary aided students with the establishment of Pep Club and also, presently acts as the group's advisor. His many efforts and ideals have contributed to the students' ability for learning and experiencing through his years at Lancaster.

"For Yesterday Is But A Dream

And Tomorrow Is Only A Vision".

"But Today, well lived, Makes every yesterday
A dream of Happiness
And every Tomorrow a Vision of Hope."

"Whether I'm right or whether I'm wrong, whether I find a place in this world or never belong,
I've gotta be me,
I've gotta be me.
What else can I be but what I am?
I want to live
not merely survive, and I won't give up this dream of life that keeps me alive.
I've gotta be me,
I've gotta be me.
The dream that I see makes me what I am.
That faraway prize,

a world of success,
is waiting for me,
if I hear the call.
I won't settle down, or settle for less,
as long as there's half a chance that I can have it all.
I'll go it alone, that's how it must be,
and I can't be right for somebody else if I'm not right for me.
I've gotta be free,
I've gotta be free.
Daring to try to do it or die, I've gotta be me."

— Walter Marks

"It is the stars, the stars above us that govern our conditions."

— William Shakespeare

"The heavens are calling you and when around you displaying to you their eternal beauty, and still your eye is looking to the ground."

— Dante

"Then I saw a new earth (with no oceans!) and a new sky, for the present earth and sky have disappeared."

— Revelations, 21:1

"The more things change, the more they stay the same."
— Anonymous

"The universe is change; our life is what our thoughts make it."
— Marcus Aurelius

"When I Heard the Learn'd Astronomer"

When I heard the learn'd astronomer,
When the proofs, the figures, were ranged in columns before me, When I was shown the charts and diagrams, to add, divide, and measure them,
When I sitting heard the astronomer where he lectured with much applause in the lecture-room, How soon unaccountable I became tired and sick, Till rising and gliding out I wander'd off by myself,
In the mystical moist night-air, and from time to time, Look'd up in perfect silence at the stars."

— Walt Whitman

The universe to us now, in 1974, is an infinite place holding countless mysteries and many questions unanswered

We look ahead to the future as a time for answering these questions unanswered, as a time for solving our many mysteries

We also see as we look ahead times of joy and happiness together with sorrow and sadness We will have happy days and days of despair, but

As children of the universe we are ready to explore

CHILDREN OF THE SUN

Come home you children of the sun enter doorways laughing, lingering staying for the space of this one afternoon Going only when you're summoned to supper and to sleep Coming yet another day to climb my trees and trample down my roses Stretch out upon my grass exercising your young limbs in the sandlot game Come you children of the sun save all your unsung song for me Take liberties with my front yard Laugh at and with me Trust me as you trust each other That great bale of fire stumbled now is sinking fast Expecting it to roll or stretch through yet another day is much too much to ask Now come you children of the yellow sun begin your games within the daylight left

— Rod McKuen

I can not sense the presence Of any other human being A deep feeling of awe creeps over me, Yet I am filled with the possession of life
The surroundings of red, gold, and brown are revealed, As the sun rises from the horizon
It calls me to reach its beams of light,
To take me to another world

The colors seem brighter now Air no longer holds the stillness of night
A fresh fragrance of growth, Replaces the staleness of the old

I must return
Tomorrow I will be back.
Alone again,
To experience,
Dawn once more

The moon and man-made stars shine about me on the new-fallen snow and I think how beautiful the night is Peace and tranquility surround me as I see the houses lighted in warmth

When I walk to the forest to ponder the glorious pines reaching nobly to the sky in their armor of white then I realize how small I am

is find the special key

Looking out the window trying to find life wondering if it's worth it — the agony and the strife not only in the books but trying to find yourself and ignoring all the looks

Looking for an easy way to end my years of school if I said I didn't care I'd only be a fool

SOMEONE ON MY MIND

I'm a beginner, with nowhere to begin, I'm a believer with nothing to believe in,
I'm confused, but always am I kind,
Because, I've got another someone on my mind

I'm a mountain climber, with no mountains to climb
I'm a traveler without any time
I'm a swimmer who cannot swim
I can't do anything without him

I'm in a crowd, but so all alone I seem I'm a dreamer, with so much yet to dream
So, I gather my yesterdays for my tomorrows to find
Because, I've got another someone on my mind
— Angela Prigl

MAN
Man
Is he real?
Kills people and himself everyday Fights wars with other men
Man
Is he real?
He is stuffed with drugs Drunked in booze and not in shame? Man
Is he real?
Sucking gin by the corner Writing names on bright brick walls
As a drunkard staggers and falls
Man
Is he real?
He is illusioned by other men
He is bribed or pushed by other men Stuffed with F&S ties
Man
Is he real?
He is replaced by computer Can't he be a computer?
I leave you with this thought
Man
Is he?
— Pat Mazzanti

ECSTASY

To finally achieve what you wanted,
To realize that it was just waiting for you To feel that it is too important to lose,
To know that it cannot be lost

I know and I feel I see and I dream, I realize that he means so much to me

Seeing and hoping
Not wondering why,
Know that everything
Once again will fly

I wandered and went from one to another But somehow I knew He'd always be there I'm happy and sailing from one time to next With hope that tomorrow will yet be the best

Certain that life shall now be worth living, Ecstasy is just an achievement since him
— Mary McMillen

WORLDS

There are a million worlds to explore      a million words to explore A world inside each friend, each enemy, each person A world inside each part of my body, each cell, each atom
A world inside each death
A world inside a sob, a grin
A world inside an alarm clock
A world inside a symphony, a movement, a melody
A world inside an embrace A world inside a cat, a gerbil, a mosquito A world inside each night
A world inside each angry word
A world inside each day, each hour, each moment      each moment A million worlds to explore, yet I have not the capacity to know even      to know even one — Wendy Whalen

Who can answer
Why?
Theories that explain Contradictions
Cause confusion
Cause confusion

Live because of Life
Not a manufactured
Knowledge
Of such

Must we pretend Having complexity?
Falsehood causes Destruction for all
— Cindy Feyer

LONELINESS IS JUST A WORD

I never really knew before How lonely life could be,
But shadows come, and sunshine leaves And always it leaves me.

~~I had someone special~~ My loneliness would leave me
I could care as no one else Yet no one will believe me

I guess it's fair, if fair can be To leave me all alone
For love is here, then love is gone
My friends have lately shown

But loneliness is just a word
A frame of mind that greets me I'll shake it off, I'll laugh and scoff For pain cannot defeat me
— Debbie Czuwyt

When you lose people's love
And want to die
You leave the crowd
To go and cry

But crying doesn't help
You feel the need To get away
You want to leave No, you can't stay

But where can you go?
You have to find
Some place, somewhere, Away from those Who just don't care
But is there such a place?

No one wants to listen
No one even tries
No one even looks at you,
No one hears your cries —
For help

There's pressure in your head
You don't know what to do No one's even trying to see Or understand you

So you make up your mind You've got to leave this place for good There's just no other way You'll never gain their love again,
No matter what they say Yet still you plead —

Just look at me, See me Just try to understand Don't you see I need your love Please take me by the hand,
And show me the way "

But it's hopeless, you know it,
You feel it in your heart.
So you've decided It's best for you to part For good
— Sandy Eichlinger

NOW WE'RE APART

I thought when I met him it would all work out But I had so many problems they made me pout

I was moody all week and I'd cry everyday I would act terrible toward him with the words I would say

I didn't mean to aggravate and hurt him so
But I did and it's done and it made him go

The ring I had given him, he said he would send I knew then and there that it was the end

And then I was shaky and had a trembling heart

For I knew it was over and we were apart
— Laurie Cline

TIMELESS MOMENTS

Timeless moments capture meaningful pieces of the swiftness of life which passes by. Endlessly drifting, floating, unremembered like autumn leaves scattered aimlessly around before the winter storm remembering nothing, seconds, days, years . . . a life obliterated, removed from the memory . . . what was lived laughed, loved slips silently by as the snow falls hushed to the ground, melts unnoticed . . . knowing it will all return again . . . One moment becomes another hidden watches, covered medals, rings beneath . . . the imagery of hiding installed by ancestors, covering the expressions which are life . . . Look up, realize, awaken, beware and feel life

For when the end is near we will remember
But as the snow melts and returns
DO WE? — Michael Cook

Your children are not your children

They come through you but not from you,
And though they are with you yet they belong not to you.
You may give them your love but not your thoughts For they have their own thoughts.
You may house their bodies but not their souls, For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams

VINCENT

Starry, starry night, paint your pallid blue and gray, look out on a summer's day with eyes that know the darkness in my soul. Shadows on the hills, sketch the trees and the daffodils, catch the breeze and the winter chills in colors on the snowy, linen land . . .

Starry, starry night, flaming flowers that brightly blaze, swirling clouds in violet haze reflecting Vincent's eyes of China blue, colors changing hue. Morning fields of amber gray, weathered faces lined in pain are soothed beneath the artist's loving hand . . .

Now I understand what you tried to say to me and how you suffered for your sanity and how you tried to set them free. They did not listen, they did not know how. Perhaps they'll listen now

Seeing the leaves, dropping from the high and low branches the thought rises: this day of all others is the one chosen, all other days fall away from it on either side and only itself remains in perfect fullness. It is its own summer, of its leaves as they scrape on the smooth ground it must build its perfection. The gross summer of the year is only a halting counterpart of those fiery days of secret triumph which in reality themselves paint the year as if upon a parchment, giving each season a mockery of the warmth or frozenness which is within ourselves. The true seasons blossom or wilt not in fixed order but so that many of them may pass in a few weeks or hours whereas sometimes a whole life passes and the season remains of a piece from one end to the other.

IF ALL THE UNPLAYED PIANOS

If all the unplayed pianos in America
The antimacassered uprights in old ladies' parlors
In the storehouses the ones that were rented for vaudeville
The ones where ill fame worsened and finally died
The ones too old for Sunday School helplessly dusty
The ones too damp at the beach and too dry in the mountains
The ones mothers used to play on winter evenings
The ones silenced because of the children growing away — Resounded suddenly all together from coast to coast.
Untuned joy like a fountain jetted everywhere for a moment:
The whole nation burst to untapped, untrammelled song
It would make — in short — a most satisfactory occasion, A phenomenon which the scientists could never explain.

This Way Again''

The Lancaster Chapter of the National Honor Society is basically a service organization. Students must meet academic standards and teacher approvals in order to be tapped into the Honor Society. This year's officers include President — Brian Stachniak, Vice-President — Jane Rettew, Secretary — Lori Laffrado, and Mrs. Beck, advisor

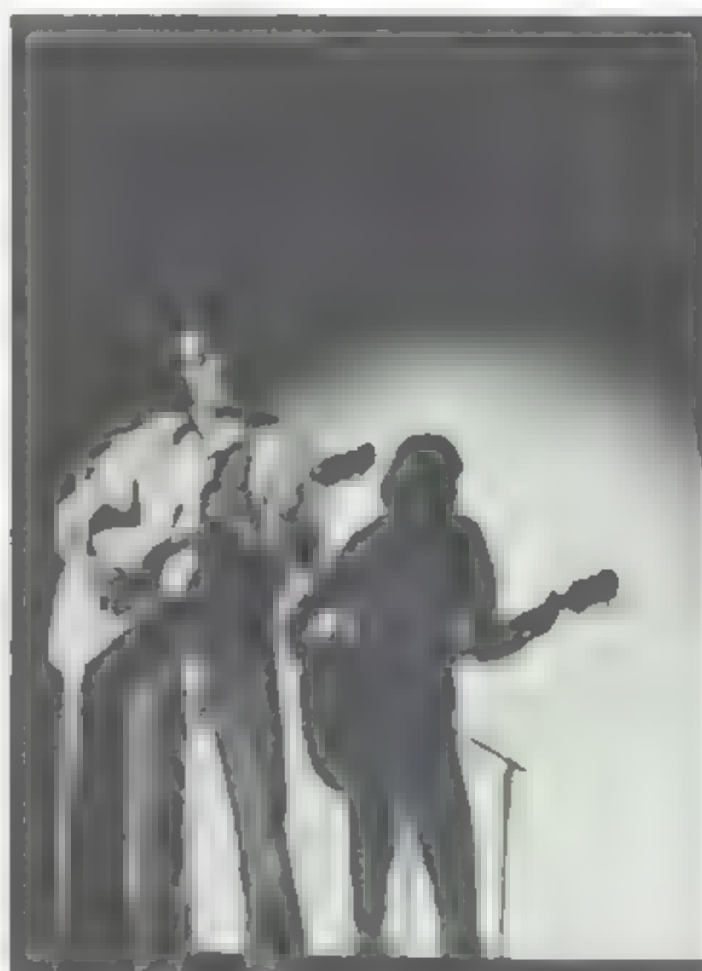

EXCHANGE STUDENTS — Lars-Eric Argen, Mrs. Beck, Mira Najdanovic

Lancaster's participation on the high school television quiz program "It's Academic" is in its third successful year. The team and team alternates drilled weekly after school in preparation for the shows. Much free time is also devoted to develop more knowledge and speed. This year our team consisted of Brian Hosey (captain), Jeffrey Johnson, and Lori Laffrado. Alternates, who drilled along with the team were Allan Beck, Bryan Bingel, Laurie Pacanowski, and Mary Ellen Phillips. Our Advisor, Mrs. E. Beck, played Van Miller in practice sessions, and aided in the team's readiness for the programs

"Do Your Thing"

The Honor Society's major activity during the school year was the annual AROCC (Association for Research of Childhood Cancer) concert, the proceeds of which benefit that organization. This year the Honor Society launched its first Variety Show, presenting talent from elementary and secondary levels of education in the school district. The profits from this endeavor were donated to AROCC, also for A.R.O.C.C.

STUDENT

Ideas and opinions, involvement throughout our school, are what the Student Union is all about. We aim for bringing the student body together and helping our school in anyway we can. Participation is an important part of any club, and this has helped our union greatly. We hope this involvement will last for all the years to come.

A.F.S. means American Field Service International Scholarship, Mira from Yugoslavia, Kris Kimbrough in Chile and a float in the Lancaster Quasiquicentennial Parade

In February, Gena Goosman (pres.), Kathy Buechi (v. pres.), Wendy Whalen (sec.), Mary Meissner (treas.), Mrs. Martin (adv.) and Mira attended the annual A.F.S. forum on "Human Rights" in Alden. The annual Pot Luck Dinner was held Feb. 14

Money raising activities include name tag sales, car washes and rummage sales held throughout the year

"Walk together, talk together, O ye people of the Earth,
And only then,
Shall there be peace"

— A.F.S. Motto

MIXED

CHORUS

The Lancaster High School Mixed Chorus is doing all the fun and exciting things it does each year, along with some new adventures and activities. The annual Christmas and Spring Concerts were very special. This year we had pizza and candy sales, which were both terrific! We also had a 50's dance, which was an evening none of us will never forget. It was a real "gas."

Representing the Fourth Estate at Lancaster High is the staff of "Spirit", the school newspaper. These students, under the guidance of Mrs. I. Snyder and editor Laurie Pacanowski, follow every issue from concept, through the hours of writing and layout, to the circulation of each monthly issue. The newspaper staff provides an essential service to the educational system at LCS, proving with each issue that the pen is mightier than the sword Stage Crew has been a lot busier this year than in the past few years. This year, they took on the responsibility of coordinating lighting and sound for the Water Show, the Variety Show, and the Jazz Ensemble concerts. Their work for HELLO DOLLY included the building, installation, and wiring of a massive proscenium arch to outline the front of the stage in an effort to indicate the elegant nature of the musical.

PERFORMING ARTS SOCIETY

Membership in the Performing Arts Society is based on merit. Members accumulate credit in the productions put on by the Society. Besides actors, members include stage crew, orchestra, and the Society's various committees, such as publicity, props, make-up and house Canisius. A private four-year liberal arts college with a Jesuit tradition of academic excellence. It's a personal place, where people count and aren't just counted. It's a professional experience, where creative people are waiting to introduce you to degree programs and careers in business administration, the sciences, education, and the humanities. There is even a special physical education major. Popular, professional programs like urban studies, fashion merchandising, pre-med, pre engineering, and communications are all offered by a quality faculty anxious to open the doors to a world of opportunity.

There are the student people, the people who make Canisius come alive. We want our students to actively participate in choosing their academic environment. And they do! We want them to get as much as they can out of their four years to be prepared to earn a living when they leave. We want them to enjoy all the special advantages of our urban location. And most important, we want them to share the Jesuit heritage of educational achievement and concern for people and community that spans the centuries.

If people get to you, maybe Canisius is the right place for you. A personal, private, professional education where it's the people who count.

There are several financial aid programs available to Canisius students, including the new Tuition Assistance Plan for New York State residents. For more information about Canisius College or to schedule a campus tour and interview, contact Director of Admissions, 2001 Main Street, Buffalo, New York 14208 or call toll free (716) 883-5223.
